

RESIDENTIAL AGED CARE NEWS

We are sending all our love and support your way during this time and know that some of you are experiencing great hardship and extremely difficult times.

We know how hard you are working during this time and the circumstances you are working in and want to say we see you and we thank you for your tireless work, your aged care expertise and your compassion.

Please be kind to yourselves and each other.

Updated state Covid19 management plan including who to contact in the event of a suspected or positive case. This also includes how to contact the Victorian Aged Care Response Centre
